The Greatest Surrender.

The greatest surrender in the annals of warfare was that of Metz on Oct. 27, 1870. As a fortified place Metz, with its surrounding forts, was practically impregnable, but had generalship permitted it to be completely surrounded and cut off. The surrender included 3 field marshals, 68 generals, 6,000 officers of lower degree, over 400 guns, 100 mitrailleuses, nearly 60 standards and 173,900 rank and file.

Uninteresting.

"I supposed all grass widows attracted the men, but this one doesn't; and she's rather pretty too. I wonder why they permit her to stand around alone."

"Well, you see, it was all her husband's fault. She got the divorce."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Wasted.

Tess—So Mr. Boren called on you last evening. I don't suppose you got a chance to open your mouth.

Jess—Oh, yes, frequently. But it didn't do any good. He didn't pay any attention to my yawns.—Philadelphia Press.

It is always a matter of surprise that others should take their worries so much to heart; also that they make so light of ours.—Smart Set.

His Side.

He—Often when I look up at the stars in the firmament I cannot help thinking how small, how insignificant, I am after all.

She—Gracious! Doesn't that thought ever strike you except when you look at the stars in the firmament?—Exchange.

In the year B. C. 128 eight hundred thousand persons perished by a pestilence arising from the putrefaction of great swarms of dead locusts.

Pretty Weak.

The Boarder—I protest against drinking any such water as this. It is positively warm!

The Lady of the House—Gracious, man! That's not water! That's your coffee!

Man loves to be praised for his intuition, woman for her logic. As a rule neither possesses either.—Smart Set.

To learn the worth of a man's religion do business with him.—Aphorisms and Reflections.

Reliable and Gentle.

"A pill's a pill," says the saw. But there are pills and pills. You want a pill which is certain, thorough and gentle. Mustn't gripe. DeWitt's Little Early Risers fill the bill. Purely vegetable. Do not force but assist the bowel to act. Strengthen and invigorate. Small and easy to take. For sale by E. S. Leudbeater & Sons.
